VENUS IS DISCOVERED AGAIN: THIS TIME SHE IS VIRGINIA BELLE [Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

New York, February 12 .-- Venus is discovered again. To-day she is Mrs. Harold C. Mitchell, of No. 321 St. Nicholns Avenue, a fine type of Southern woman. Mrs. Mitchell comes from Norfolk, Va., and was a young society belie of that city before her marriage several years ago. To-day she entered a "Venus contest," which is being waged by one of the local newspapers. Here are Mrs. Mitchell's measurements: Height-5 feet 7 inches.

1(1ps-3) inches.

Mrs. Mitchell attributes her good form to exercise. "Exercise will do it for every woman," she said to-day. "Excercise, regular and careful eating and plenty of sleep regularly are the essentials. A good porterhouse steak properly eaten so that the stomach is not overburdened will do to give a girl a good form.

"It is important that a girl should get at least eight hours of sleep every night. In the morning upon arising I always do a certain amount of exercise before leaving the apartment, and I make it a point to take a short walk before breakfast. Naturally, upon returning I have a fine appetite.
"It is the old story over and over again, the more a perso outdoors, the better it is for her. In the case of a girl tred up in a business office eight hours a day, it is absolutely necessary to health that she should take a little jount daily. Then she will retain her brightness Dancing is good exercise, and undoubtedly develops the muscles of the legs. So many girls neglect exercising it is not at all remarkable that so many are poorly developed."
